MeterMaids is a group of women writers who have been meeting since 1990 to express their individual responses to life and the world around them. Meetings are a safe, creative place to bolster and listen to each other for more good reasons or results than can actually be perceived or measured. Each meeting has us coming away richer, believing something important has shifted in the universe. (thoughts shared by Linda Prather)

Our Most Excellent Open Mic will follow the featured readers, so bring a poem or two to share!
